ALL OF THE ANIMALS

All of the animals in the stable,
All of the animals squashed inside.
All of the animals getting grumpy,
All of the animals feeling tired ...

Looked at the people warm and comfy,
Looked at the people satisfied,
Watched as the humans filled their bellies,
Watched as the humans drank their wine.

It's just not fair,
Why can't the animals go in there?

All of the animals in the stable,
All of the animals in the hay,
All of the animals feeling jealous,
All of the animals moo and bray.

Looked at the people warm and comfy,
Looked at the people satisfied,
Watched as the humans filled their bellies,
Watched as the humans drank their wine.

It's just not fair,
Why can't the animals go in there?
