WEARY TRAVELLERS

Weary travellers found a place to rest
In a stable with the animals
Who were unaware that they had been blessed
In a stable with some travellers.

And a miracle has happened here tonight,
A miracle has happened here.
A baby boy has been born,
A baby boy has been born to be King.

We see Mary and Joseph once again, Mary carrying the newborn baby Jesus.

Angels from above sang a song of praise
Near the stable with the animals.
Alleluia, he will light our way
Like a beacon out of darkness.

And a miracle has happened here tonight,
A miracle has happened here.
A baby boy has been born,
A baby boy has been born to be King.

A baby boy has been born,
A baby boy has been born to be King.
